THE GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 13.

THE GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE.

The second biennial message of Governor Rusk appears in a supplemental form with this issue of the Gazette. It is a document well worth a careful reading, and we trust the readers of the Gazette will give it that thoughtful study which its importance demands.

One of the leading democrats of this state who made a splendid fight for Woodward, said in reviewing the message a short time before its delivery, "It is in my judgment one of the best messages ever written by an executive of this state The old man has struck the vein of common sense all the way through it, and is mighty sound on all the questions discussed in the message" This will be the unbiased opinion of every one who will give the message a careful reading. The first paragraph of the message is full of wisdom and thoughtful suggestions, and should arrest the serious attention of every member of the legislature. It is this:

You are again assembled after a lapse of two years of general prosperity vouchsafed the people of the state by a benign and gracious Providence, and I congratulate you upon the many hopeful signs of a continuation for the future. New discoveries have been made and new fields of industry and employment are being opened, and the prospects that the resources of the state will be greatly developed during the coming year, are gratifying in the extreme. While thus congratulating you upon our material progress, it is with deep regret that I am compelled to report, that during the past year the peace of our state has, in a few instances, been interrupted by strikes and riots of grevious magnitude, of more violence, and farther reaching in their consequences, than ever before. In this connection, you are reminded that it will be your duty, as legislators, to look carefully into the causes of these troubles, and wherein our laws for the prevention of wrong doing, or the punishment of wrong-doers, are found to be defective, it will be your duty to perfect them by such new legislation as recent experience and reasonable anticipations for the future may indicate to be required. While your own intelligence, aided by your investigations and discussions, will, I have no doubt, lead you to a satisfactory solution of all the problems involved in this subject, yet I may be indulged in a few suggestions, which I hope will not be found either impertinent or unwarranted.

Governor Rusk then goes on o point out one fact which seems to have been almost forgotten. It is this, speaking of the labor troubles: "The contention is between employes and employers, and both classes combined are but a minority fraction of the whole people, whose peace and interests are interrupted and their rights violated by these unseemly and unnecessary disturbances. It is the right and duty of the people—that is, of the great majority—to step in and say not only "let us have peace", but "we will have peace", and through the law and lawfully constituted authorities to see to it that we do have peace, and that disturbers are promptly and properly punished." For the general discussion of the labor question, the reader is referred to the full message. It will strike every one, we judge, as being eminently sound. It certainly will meet the views of all law-abiding people, and will be read with special interest because the points are made by one of the best governors this country ever produced—a man who at the most critical moment this state ever saw—had not only the courage to do his duty, but the wisdom to do it after a fashion that commanded the applause of the law and order people in all parts of the country.

There is no state in the Union that is in a more satisfactory condition than Wisconsin. No state tax for the general expenses of the government has been levied during the past three years, and unless the legislature shall make very heavy appropriations during the present session, there will not be the need of a state tax for the next two years Aside from this gratifying showing, there is upwards of $400,000 in the state treasury.

The message then refers to the management of the charitable and penal institutions: "The report of the State board of supervision presents a very full and satisfactory showing regarding the management of the state institutions under its care. The total amount expended by the board during the biennial term ending September 30, 1886, was $635,008 99. Of the amount appropriated two years ago for the maintenance and support of the six charitable and penal institutions, $58,000 has been unexpended, and will be returned into the treasury. During the two years ending last September, the total number of persons cared for in all the state institutions was 4,076 against 3,721 for the previous biennial term. Although there has been an increase of 355 in the number of persons cared for, the current expenses for the biennial term ending September 30, 1886, were $12,313 37 less than for the corresponding term ending September 30, 1884. While there has been an average decrease in the per capita cost of managing the institutions, the weekly average for 1886 being $3.19, the lowest ever reached, there has been no curtailment, but rather an enlargement of the amount of necessary supplies furnished.'

In regard to the contract system in the state prison, the governor says: "The contract for the labor of the convicts of the state prison, under the system adopted some years ago, will expire with the year 1887. Under this contract the state furnishes the labor of the convicts by the hour, and retains the management and feeding of the prisoners. Should the legislature determine to abolish the system now in use, some method should be provided for the employment of the inmates. It would be disastrous to the prisoners, as well as the state, to undertake to maintain them in idleness. They should work. They should assist certainly in paying the expenses of their keeping. As a reformatory measure, also, they should be employed. 'Each should produce according to his ability, and reduce according to his needs.' As near as practicable, they should be so employed that their labor or products would not come into competition with free labor."

There are many other valuable facts and suggestions in the message that should be carefully read by the public. The closer the people will read the document the more they will be convinced that Governor Rusk is an executive of which the people can feel proud. As a representative of the people, he has never been surpassed in fitness. Let our readers study his words, and they will then better appreciate this plain business man who fills the highest office in this state with so much wisdom, modesty and ability.

The Century Magazine prints for the first time these words of Abraham Lincoln, given in an official reprimand to a young officer who had been court-martialed for quarrelling: "The advice of a father to his son, 'Beware of entrance to a quarrel, but being in, bear it that the opposed may beware of thee!' is good, but not the best. Quarrel not at all. No man resolved to make the most of himself can spare time for personal contention. Still less can he afford to take all the consequences, including the violating of his temper and the loss of self-control. Yield larger things to which you can show no more than equal rights, and yield lesser ones, though clearly your own. Better give your path to a dog than be bitten by him in contesting for the right. Even killing the dog would not cure the bite."

The refusal of the British government to grant the Gate City Guards, of Atlanta, Ga., permission to enter England with their arms cannot be defended on any other grounds than those of unfriendliness. The Atlanta military company has a tour of Europe in contemplation, and England was placed on its line of march. Several other countries have already given their consent to the peaceful invasion, and the refusal from England was hardly thought possible. That it has been given will do much to convince the southern people that such sympathy as they had from that quarter during the war was of a character which contemplated nothing but the destruction of the entire American republic and saw in the south only an instrument to that end.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

New York has spent $700,000 on its canals this year.

France and Mexico have concluded a treaty of commerce.

The power for the electrical railroad at Toronto costs only $2 a day.

The Spanish cortes has authorized an outlay of $45,000,000 for new war vessels.

"Lucky" Baldwin's California ranch contains 50,000 acres and employs 250 men.

It is believed that the Chinese in California "sale" from $1,000 to $2,000 in silver dollars every week.

An angry controversy is in progress in England over the question, "Do Women Have Souls?"

Capitalists in Australia are talking of laying a cable to British Colombia at a cost of $10,000,000.

The public has paid for Appleton's American cyclopædia in its various editions, including annual supplements, nearly $15,000,000.

It is rumored in London that a new half penny daily morning paper will make its appearance in that city on the 1st of January.

Tar as a fuel for ocean steamers is about to be experimented upon by a German who has constructed a novel furnace for the purpose.

A colored citizen of Corinth, Miss., has a skin that is so hard and thick that he can walk on coals of fire without experiencing any pain.

The coming illusion will be the antipodes of the Vanishing Lady. Out of a small egg, which grows gradually larger and larger before the eyes of the spectators, will be produced a living girl.

There is an extraordinary demand for photographs of Archer. One firm of photographers in London assert that they could have sold 10,000 copies had they been ready, and it will be months before the supply is equal to the demand.

The Arab horses which the sultan of Muscat recently sent to Queen Victoria are valued at $17,000. The miscellaneous bric-a-brac which her majesty will send to the sultan are valued at $2,500, leaving a net profit of $14,500 in favor of the queen.

According to local papers the trade in abalone shells at San Diego, Cal., has almost ceased. A dealer who used to receive 1,000 tons of them every year from the coast of lower California, and shipped sixty or seventy tons by every steamer, says the caprice of fashion and an overstocked market have destroyed the business.

The Fogs of New York.

The American metropolis has never developed the "pea soup" fogs of London, and all good citizens devoutly hope it never may. A visitor to New York may see hansoms and tailor made gowns and other English innovations, but he will not see a London fog. Neither will he believe in its density until he does see it. Nevertheless New York gets up some very fair fogs, if the expression may be used. Those who patronize the nanny ferries rapidly learn the discomfort of a fog.

The fogs of New York are of several kinds. In the winter, when the floating ice on the water is melting, there is apt to arise a dense, white fog, which usually appears before dawn and remains all day. Then there is the intermittent fog, which will suddenly come on in the morning and lifts before noon. A fog will occasionally come on without warning late in the afternoon. The rivers and bay are crowded with craft of all kinds, which are caught quite unexpectedly in a disagreeable predicament. No more trustworthy class of men exists than the hard worked pilots of New York, and accidents are remarkably rare.—New York Mail and Express.

Education of Nurses.

There is quite a rage in England at present for young ladies to go to hospitals to learn nursing; but after three or six months they generally tire of it and leave, instead of going on and qualifying themselves to take an independent position and a well paid one. When a medical man has daughters and little to leave them, says an English journal, how much better it would be to educate one for a nurse instead of letting her join the overcrowded ranks of governesses. Only lately there was an excellent offer, in a town in the north of England, for a well educated lady to take a post in a private lunatic asylum, where her sole duty would be to sing and play to the inmates, and to see that the nurses did their duty at night; and the remuneration was much more than most ladies receive as companions.—Chicago Tribune.

FURTHER DEVELOPMENTS OF THE INDIANA IMBROGLIO.

Smith Begins Quo Warranto Proceedings Against Robertson—A Scheme on Foot to Expel All the Republican Senators—What Robertson Says—An Uncanny Situation—The Jerseyites Again.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 13.—A resolution containing a formal demand from Lieutenant Governor Robertson for the chair of the senate, was rejected Wednesday morning by a strict party vote, and the contests of Harris, Kennedy, McDonald and Shroyer, Republicans, and McClure, Democrat, were referred to the elections committee. Whether the Republican senators will present a protest to the action of the Democratic majority in rejecting Lieutenant Governor Robertson's demand for the presiding officer's chair has not been definitely settled. It was the purpose to do so, but Wednesday afternoon the president pro-tem of the senate filed in the circuit court of this country an information in quo warranto as well as an application for injunction and ouster against the lieutenant governor. The allegations are partly those of his first suit for injunction against Secretary of State Myers, to prevent the transmission of the election returns to the speaker of the house. Smith was defeated in that suit. He now in addition sets up that Robertson has unlawfully assumed the title and duties of the office of lieutenant governor. The defendant is required to answer Thursday and show cause why a restraining order should not be granted pending argument. It is expected it will at once reach the supreme court, which will, it is supposed, render an early decision.

Judge Ayres refused to issue the restraining order as prayed for without notice, but granted a writ upon defendant to appear at 9 o'clock Thursday morning and show cause why such restraining order should not issue pending a final hearing of the case. The institution of this proceeding has revived popular excitement over the situation, and it was the all-absorbing topic of conversation Wednesday night in the crowded hotel lobbies. The situation is regarded by clear-headed observers as more critical than at any time since the pending complications arose, and there are grave apprehensions of what a few days may bring forth.

Col. Robertson was seen by a correspondent after the adjournment of the Republican caucus. He said he should appear by attorney to the Smith proceedings, when a demurrer would be entered to the jurisdiction of the court. If the court accepted jurisdiction, he would make a vigorous and, he thought, a successful defense. He expressed the opinion that the court had no authority in the premises, and added that a contingency would probably arise, should a restraining order issue, which would give the court an opportunity to commit him to jail for contempt, or at least to make an effort to do so. This means that Col. Robertson intends to preside over the joint convention in the house on the 19th inst., in disregard of the rule of the court, if such order is issued, and take the consequences.

The Democratic caucus adjourned at midnight, having been in session since 8 o'clock. The proceedings were highly important, and promise a sensation of no small magnitude. Resolutions were adopted by a unanimous vote reciting the adjournment of the senate from Friday last until Tuesday, the proceedings in the hall of representatives on Monday with reference to the canvass of the vote for lieutenant governor, and the attendance of the nineteen Republican senators thereupon, in violation of the order of the senate, and instructing the senate committee on elections to investigate the matter and report whether such senators should be expelled for their action in the premises. The resolution will be adopted in the senate Friday, and it is expected the election committee will report later in the week in favor of the expulsion of the entire Republican minority.

NEW JERSEY LIGHTNING.

A Member Develops Extraordinary Straddling Capacity.

TRENTON, N. J., Jan. 13.—There was much disorder in the house of representatives Wednesday over the questions whether the members should be sworn, or the roll called first. The Republicans carried their point, however, and the roll was called. The unsworn members then took the oath and the contest was continued in the seating of Turley, who held a certificate on a contested election case from the court. On a motion to refer the case of Turley to a committee on contests there was a tie. On a motion to swear Turley in, Donohue, one of the Labor members, voted aye with the Democrats, and the motion was carried—39 to 28. Donohue received an ovation from the Democrats. He made a speech, saying he was "a Jefferson Democrat and an Abraham Lincoln Republican." A committee on contested seats was appointed, and the house adjourned until Monday night.

If there is any change in the senatorial situation, it is in favor of Abbett.

Illinois Legislature.

SPRINGFIELD, Ills., Jan. 13.—The senate Wednesday confirmed the appointment of A. L. Clark on the board of health. A communication was presented from the Veteran club, of Chicago, asking the support of the senators for ex-Governor Hamilton for United States senator. A resolution was passed asking congress to enact laws against the importation of diseased cattle. Bills were introduced: Appropriating $70,822 for an insane asylum at Elgin; fixing disfranchisement as the penalty for selling votes; making it felony to import into this state any explosive to be used to the injury of any person; providing that all coal cars shall be gauged and miners paid for the full weight and measure of the coal dug.

Every member of the house seems to have a bill or two in his pocket. The following are a few of those introduced Wednesday: Appropriating $2,000 to John A. Lyle, of Sterling, who lost his arms at a veteran reunion; to regulate the manufacture and sale of explosives and providing penalties for their use in the destruction of life and property; to compel persons and corporations to pay interest on such deposits as they require of their employes; appropriating $25,000 to be used to prevent the spread of contagious cattle diseases; the revenue bill adopted by the revenue commission.

Milwaukee Socialists Headed Off.

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 13.—Both houses of the state legislature convened in second biennial session Wednesday. Mr. Brigham, a Milwaukee Republican, introduced a resolution in the assembly to the effect that all bills must be referred to the regular standing committees. The object of this was to prevent reference of measures affecting Milwaukee to a special committee composed of the Milwaukee delegation, and to curtail the influence of the Socialistic majority in that delegation. Theodore Ruzinski, Milwaukee's Socialistic leader, passionately denounced the resolution in a long and exciting harangue, and acted as though on the verge of insanity, but the resolution was finally adopted by such an overwhelming vote as to plainly indicate the ill-feeling of the assembly towards sympathizers with Socialism. The officers elected in the senate were as follows: C. K. Erwin, of Monroe, president, pro tem; Charles E. Bross, of Madison, chief clerk. House officers: T. B. Mills, of Black River Falls, speaker; Edward S. Coe, of Whitewater, chief clerk.

Illinois Democratic State Committee.

SPRINGFIELD, Ills., Jan. 13.—At the meeting of the Democratic state central committee at the Leland hotel here Erskine M. Phelps, of Chicago, was elected chairman, beating Orendorff, the retiring presiding officer. W. J. Mize was chosen secretary, and the headquarters of the committee were ordered transferred to Chicago.

Wanted Badly To Be Doorkeeper.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Jan. 13.—J. G. Clayburn, of Pocahontas county, defeated candidate for doorkeeper of the house, in a moment of mortification, attempted to commit suicide Wednesday afternoon by taking morphine. He will die.

Republican Municipal Nominations.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Jan. 13.—The Republicans Wednesday nominated Edwin H. Fitler, for mayor; Henry Clay, for receiver of taxes; Charles F. Warwick, for city solicitor, and Charles D. Fulman, for police magistrate.

Nevada Chooses a Senator.

CARSON, Nev., Jan. 13.—William M. Stewart was chosen United States senator by the legislature in joint session Wednesday. He received 46 out of 69 votes.

TROOPS IN THE FIELD.

A Riot at Newport News Causes the Militia To Be Sent There.

NORFOLK, Va., Jan. 13.—The tug Archie of the Newport News & Mississippi Valley Railroad company, arrived here about 1 o'clock Wednesday from Newport News, and reports that everything is quiet among the striking stevedores at that place. The warehouses of the Old Dominion Land company were slightly damaged by an incendiary fire Tuesday during a small riot of the strikers. Five military companies were ordered from Richmond and Hampton Tuesday night by Governor Lee and arrived early Wednesday morning, in command of Gen. Anderson and Maj. J. Y. Bidgood, of the First Virginia regiment, and are quartered on board the steamer John Rumer at that place. It is thought the presence of the military will prevent any further trouble.

Later news states that the railroad company (Newport News & Mississippi Valley) brought down a number of hands to take the places of longshoremen now on a strike. The strikers succeeded in getting twenty-seven of these new hands to agree to quit, but Gen. Wickham, second vice president of the road, made them a speech and succeeded in getting them to return to work. The Knights of Labor assembly at Newport News, had a lengthy session Wednesday afternoon, at which the stevedores were present. The determination arrived at was not to go to work unless the railroad company acceded to the demands of the strikers.

The arbitration committee have informed Gen. Wickham that they are ready to confer with him at such time as may please him. The new men are ready to go to work on the coal docks as soon as the railroad company compromises with the old hands. The stevedores are quiet and boldly confident of winning their fight. There are no indications of any collision between the troops and the rioters. Business is suspended and not a store was open in Newport News Wednesday. The populace in the town and country adjacent is very much excited over the state of affairs.

A DISTRESSING SITUATION.

And Worse Probable Because of the Coal-Handlers' Strike.

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—The strike of longshoreman remains unchanged. The Old Dominion line acknowledges that the attempt of the men to cause other lines to boycott its freight has been partially successful. The scarcity of coal causes increased interruption to business and hardship to the poor. Havemeyer & Elder's large sugar refinery shut down Wednesday, being unable to get coal to carry on the business. Eight hundred men are thrown out of work. The Palmer copperage was also compelled to close, throwing out 600 men. A large number of other establishments will succumb unless the blockade is speedily raised. Coal at retail sells from $7 to $8 per ton in the city coal yards and the supply is rapidly diminishing. The situation of the strike does not seem to have materially changed. A report was current Wednesday that the the anthracite miners had sent word to the striking handlers that if the move was approved by the latter the former would strike en masse. This would stop 50,000 men and make the situation all over the country where anthracite is used very serious.

A German Nobleman Dies Ignobly.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 13.—Letters have been discovered in connection with the suicide of Bernard Schaff, a book swindler recently arrested in this city, that show he was a German earl, who had been left a large fortune and run through it. He had visited the principal cities of the world and finally committed forgery in this city and St. Louis. A note in his handwriting has been found, which states that he intended to commit suicide Jan. 11. The letter is addressed to the chief of police, and gives an alleged history of the writer, who says he was a member of one one of the prominent families in Germany. According to his story he was a younger son of the earl of Duerkheim, and he signs his letter "Waldemar, earl of Duerkheim," although the estate went to his elder brother.

Railway Consolidation.

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio, Jan. 13.—It was announced here Tuesday that the directors of the Cleveland, Sandusky & Cincinnati, the Springfield & Columbus road, and the Indiana, Bloomington & Western system have entered into an agreement for the consolidation of the three roads into one general system, with the name of the Columbus, Sandusky, Indianapolis & Western. It will include 548 miles of road, from Peoria to Sandusky and from Columbus to Peoria. The agreement will be submitted to the stockholders, and can not consequently go into effect before April or May. The new railway directory will consist of thirteen members, five from the Cleveland, Sandusky & Cincinnati and eight from the Indiana, Bloomington & Western.

Whisky Was What Ruined Him.

MONTICELLO, Ky., Jan. 13.—Granville Prowett was hanged Wednesday in the presence of 4,000 people for the murder of William Buck and his sister, in August, 1886. At 12:35 the condemned man ascended the gallows. He shook hands with those on the scaffold and spoke a few words, saying: "Gentlemen, you all see that I have to be hung. I have to die on the gallows. Let whisky alone. That's what ruined me. The crime was committed as you heard it. Think of me when I am gone." The crowd sang "Nearer, My God, to Thee." Prayer was said by Rev. Smith, and the trap was sprung at 1 p. m. He was dead in nine minutes.

A BILL THAT DIGS POLYGAMY UP BY THE ROOTS

Passed by the House with Great Unanimity — Mrs. Cleveland Entertains Budding Beauty—Report of Hewitt's Death — Hennepin and Henderson — Fighting Public Printer Benedict.

WASHINGTON CITY, Jan. 13.—The house spent Wednesday in the debate and passage of the Tucker substitute for Edmunds' anti-polygamy bill. The first speech of the debate was made by Caine, the delegate from Utah, who made an eloquent appeal for the saints, saying that the bill was wantonly destructive of human life and an act of spoliation of the Mormon church and people. The admission of the industry of the people of Utah, Caine argued, destroyed the whole case of their enemies. But even if the Mormons were not industrious and moral, could the evil be remedied by legislation? The house was asked to make honest that which was inherently dishonest, good that which was hopelessly bad, pure that which was reeking in filth, noble and elevating that which was ignoble—and all by legislation; in other words, it was asked to legislate the sow's ear into the silk purse. If the Mormon people were what popular belief declared them to be they would destroy themselves more rapidly than they could be destroyed by any method to which congress dare resort. If Mormonism fell, it would fall of its own weight. In conclusion Caine pledged his word and his character that the statements upon which this legislation was based were without foundation in fact. Time, the corrector of all evils, would right this wrong, if such it were, and the fiat of the Eternal had already declared that the last vestige of Mormonism shall be swept away by the peaceful process of events, if it is not that which God in His wisdom has appointed shall survive as the fittest. To gentlemen who had freed from bondage the negro slaves, who loved liberty and cherished the institutions of our country, and would bequeath them unsullied to their children, he pleaded that they would not consign his people to such inhuman slavery. [Applause.]

Bennett of North Carolina, opposed the bill, attacking the provision forbidding woman suffrage in Utah. While objecting to woman suffrage as an independent proposition, he believed in the God-given right of the American people in every municipality to establish order and control their own domestic affairs, and he deprecated the interference proposed in the bill.

Reed of Maine supported the bill. The Mormon organization was an organization inside of the United States, and controlling one of its territories. It was useless to call this bill an assault upon a religion. It was an assault upon a band of men organized for the purpose of exclusively controlling a territory which belonged to the people of the United States.

Tucker said that though he had reported the bill he would vote against it if he thought there was one thing in it which trenched upon the conscience even of a Mormon. The gentleman from Utah [Caine] said "Wait; if we are wrong we will sink." But the government wanted Utah as one of the states of the Union. Why did it not come in? Because there were 150,000 Mormons who would establish polygamy as one of the institutions of that state. It was the duty of congress to prepare Utah to come into the Union, and to prepare it by extirpating—rooting out—that which was alien to the genius of our institutions. He believed that if this bill were enacted into a law, and supplemented by the proposed constitutional amendment, Mormonism would go to pieces—he meant as a polygamous institution—and that Utah would be peopled by a free people and would be ready to come into the Union.

Scott of Pennsylvania asked leave to offer an amendment to the bill. Tucker declined to permit him to do so, saying that he wanted to pass the bill here and now, so that the 13th of January, 1887, would be memorable in the history of the country. [Applause]

The bill as passed makes the lawful husband or wife of any person prosecuted for bigamy, polygamy, or unlawful cohabitation a competent witness against the accused, and further provides for the registration of all marriages, making it a misdemeanor for any person to violate the provisions relative to such registration. It annuls all territorial laws providing for the identification of the votes of electors at any election, and also all laws conferring on the territorial courts the power to determine divorce cases, and abolishes woman suffrage in the territory of Utah. Penalties are prescribed for unlawful intercourse, and polygamy is defined as a marriage between one person of one sex and more than one person of another sex, and it is declared to be a felony. The financial corporation known as the Church of the Latter Day Saints and the Perpetual Emigration Fund company are dissolved, and the attorney general is directed to wind them up by process of court; and all laws for the organization of the militia of the territory and the creation of the Nauvoo legion are annulled. Polygamists are made ineligible to vote, and a test oath is prescribed to all persons desiring to vote that they will obey the laws of the United States, and especially the laws in respect to the crimes defined in this and the original Edmunds act.

PROCEEDINGS IN CONGRESS.

The House Passes an Important Measure —Doings in the Senate.

WASHINGTON CITY, Jan. 13.—The bill extending the time for filing French spoliation claims was passed by the senate Wednesday. A bill was reported providing for a public building at Hastings, Neb. An amendment to the bill to encourage the manufacture of steel for ordnance, appropriating $5,000,000 for the construction of coast defences, was reported. A bill for the settlement of the claim of the Berdan Firearms company for the use of their improvement in firearms by the government was passed. The army appropriation bill was reported, the senate committee having added $65,100. The bill now appropriates $23,737,718. The pension appropriation bill was also reported. It is the same in amount as the house bill. Consideration of the inter-state commerce bill was resumed and Call spoke in advocacy. The bill was opposed by Brown and Mitchell of Oregon, the latter arguing that it was absolutely impotent and ineffective for the purposes for which it was designed. Owing to the fact that several members desired to speak, Cullom did not insist on a vote, but said he would ask for final action Thursday. An executive session was held, after which the senate adjourned.

As soon as some routine business was disposed of in the house the floor was given to the judiciary committee and the Tucker substitute for the Edmunds anti-polygamy bill was taken up. Caine of Utah spoke against the bill and Bennett opposed the provision abolishing female suffrage in the territory, but Tucker and others vigorously supported it and it passed without division, but eight members rising to demand the yeas and nays. The house then adjourned.

Will Read His Own Obituary Yet

WASHINGTON CITY, Jan. 13.—A report of the death of Mayor Hewitt, of New York, was widely circulated Wednesday morning, and called forth universal expressions of profound sorrow. At the White House and treasury department the report was received as would have been the news of a personal bereavement. At the capitol, anxious inquiries were heard on every side as to the truth of the report. Before congress convened the denial had been thoroughly circulated, and during the period of suspense everybody appeared anxious to be heard in some expression of regret and eulogy. Information has been received in this city by friends of Mr. Hewitt that for the last three days his sickness has been a source of anxiety to his family.

LUNCH AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

Mrs. Cleveland Entertains Thirty Young Ladies—Table Decorations.

WASHINGTON CITY, Jan. 13.—Mrs. Cleveland gave a superb luncheon Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 in honor of Miss Hastings, who is a guest at the president's mansion. At the same hour the president held a reception in the East room, so that both ends of the mansion were busy with social life. Mrs. Cleveland's guests, about thirty young ladies, sat with her in the private dining room, at a table glittering with crystal and silver. The table decorations were extremely tasteful, and were of Mrs. Cleveland's own devising. A centerpiece was of red and white camelias, with corner sections of mignonette set in a cushion of ferns edged with begonia leaves. Flanking this, at either end, were flat bouquets of white camelias, dotted with orchids and a fringe of ferns and poinsetta leaves. Silver candelabras and engraved silver dishes holding conserves, and handsome china fruit dishes added no small part to the decorations. At each cover there were large corsage bouquets of pansies, some deep purple, others white and yellow. Only water goblets and others for apollinaris were at each place. There were dainty china cups of fine ware filled with bon-bons for each lady, the cup and saucer tied together with gold or purple satin ribbon (these colors alternating), which the ladies carried away as souvenirs.

Hennepin Waiting for Henderson.

WASHINGTON CITY, Jan. 13.—The Hennepin canal project came up for discussion in the house commerce committee Wednesday in connection with the report of the board of engineers presented to the house Tuesday. In consequence of the absence of Henderson of Illinois the committee took no action in the matter, and it will be further considered when Henderson returns. He is now in Illinois. The friends of the canal ask for an appropriation of $100,000 to be included in the river and harbor bill; also a clause accepting the grant of the Illinois and Michigan canal, but a good deal of opposition has already been developed. Some members are taking the position that the letter of the secretary of war transmitting the engineers' report, as well as the report itself, can not be regarded as indorsing the project, unless extensive changes are made in the present line of route.

Not a Practical Printer.

WASHINGTON CITY, Jan. 13.—Representative Farquhar, of the Buffalo, N. Y., district, and Mr. Bisbee, editor of The Washington Craftsman—the organ of the Typographical union—were before the senate committee on printing Wednesday and spoke against the confirmation of Public Printer Benedict. They reviewed the present law, and produced the original memorial sent to congress by the International Typographical union, praying for the passage and defining the phraseology of the bill which is now a law. The words "must be a practical printer" in the law, were defined in the memorial to be one who has served an apprenticeship. Mr. Benedict says he has not served an apprenticeship, and Maj. Farquhar therefore holds that he is not eligible under the law.

Mrs. Emmons' Latest Break.

WASHINGTON CITY, Jan. 13.—Mrs. Emmons, accompanied by her maid, attended the panorama of Bull Run Wednesday evening. As soon as she reached the platform she shouted "Echo! Echo! where are you? Bad Echo, not to answer me." In a few minutes again she cried out, "Baby, baby! where, oh where, is my baby?" The unexpected performance of Mrs. Emmons completely subordinated for the time being the interest of the spectators in the counterfeit presentment of the battle, and the humor of the unwonted scene very nearly touched the pathetic.

Debated Extradition with England.

WASHINGTON CITY, Jan. 13.—The senate, in executive session Wednesday afternoon, took into consideration the extradition treaty with Great Britain. The debate lasted an hour and a half, and touched upon every phase of our relations with England, social and commercial. The dynamite question, although in no way directly involved, seemed to be the bone of contention, and aroused a good deal of feeling. The treaty was laid aside without an effort to vote upon it, and a number of nominations were confirmed, after which the senate adjourned.

One Million for Swindled Depositors.

WASHINGTON CITY, Jan. 13.—Comptroller of the Currency Trenholm was before the house committee on banking and currency Wednesday with a bill framed in accordance with the recommendations of the president in his annual message, providing for the government assuming responsibility for losses to depositors in the Freedmen's Savings bank. The bill proposes to appropriate $1,000,000 for the purpose.

Depends on Raisins and Currants.

WASHINGTON CITY, Jan. 13.—Secretary Bayard recommends that an equalization of duties be made on importations of raisins and currants in order to facilitate negotiations now pending between the governments of the United States and Spain, looking to the establishment of more liberal commercial intercourse.

S. S. Cox a Sick Man.

WASHINGTON CITY, Jan. 13.—Hon. S. S. Cox has been confined to his room at the Riggs house by illness since his return from New York after the holiday recess. He caught a severe cold about the holidays, and is suffering from chills and fever.

Low Fares for Commercial Travelers.

CHICAGO, Jan. 13.—E. A. Ford, the general passenger agent of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburg, announced Wednesday that the company has placed on sale at 100 of the principal stations on its lines, including Chicago, Logansport, Indianapolis, Louisville, Fort Wayne, Toledo, Mansfield, Cleveland and Pittsburgh, "week-end" tickets at one fare for the round trip, for commercial travelers who are members of the Travelers' Protective association. The tickets were sent to prominent stations Wednesday.

Drenched With Benzine and on Fire.

LIMA, Ohio, Jan. 13.—Wednesday morning, while inside of a large still at the Standard refinery putting in a man-head, a bucket of benzine upset and ignited, setting fire to Robert Helsey and Tiffany Rail, burning them frightfully. Helsey, with his clothes on fire, crawled from the man-hole and fell to the ground, a distance of fourteen feet, breaking his back. His body was literally roasted. Rail's injuries are also fatal.

A Curious Gun.

J. C. Nichols, general baggage agent of the Missouri Pacific Railway company, has in his possession an old gun made of copper, and, from its looks, evidently made by some old backwoods blacksmith, presented to him by "Uncle Bob" Gardner, of Chetopy, I. T. It is a perfect curiosity, and Mr. Nichols claims that it is the first gun ever made on the six-shooter order. It has six chambers, the revolution of which is made by a huge lever extending the entire length of the barrel, and is shot by cap and ball. The offensive weapon weighs forty pounds.—St. Louis Republican.

A Wall Street Theory.

It is a Wall street theory that the present era of vast individual fortunes is the result of extraordinary conditions that are bound to pass away. They exist only in this country, and it is believed that, law or no law, fifty years hence there will be few or no fifty millionaires in the United States.—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Diphtheria from a Goat.

A doctor who attended a Brooklyn family in which two children died of diphtheria last week says he has traced the infection to a goat that had come from a family where children were just recovering from the same disease.

Excitement in Texas.

Great excitement has been caused in the vicinity of Paris, Texas, by the remarkable discovery of Mr. J. E. Corley, who was so helpless he could not turn in bed, or raise his head; everybody said he was dying of Consumption. A trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery was sent him. Finding relief, he bought a large bottle and a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills; by the time he had taken two boxes of Pills and two bottles of the Discovery, he was well and had gained in flesh thirty-six pounds. Trial bottles at this Great Disc very for Consumption free at Frank Sherer & Co.

DEAD IN A MOMENT.

Lord Iddlesleigh, the British Statesman, Suddenly Called.

LONDON, Jan. 12.—Lord Iddesleigh, ex-British secretary of foreign affairs, is dead. Lord Iddesleigh fainted while ascending the stairs of Lord Salisbury's official residence in Downing street as he was about to visit his lordship Wednesday. He was taken into the prime minister's room, and almost instantly expired. Lord Iddesleigh's death was caused by disease of the heart, from which his physicians say they have looked for death at any time. It is thought that the anxiety and worry caused by the recent trouble in the cabinet hastened the end.

The queen, when informed of the death of the earl, was deeply affected, and immediately telegraphed to Lady Iddesleigh and other members of the dead peer's family messages of sympathy and condolence.

Gladstone, who has always held Lord Iddesleigh in high personal esteem, was also much shocked at receiving the news of his sudden death. To a press association in reply to a telegram asking for publication an expression of Gladstone's feelings, Mrs. Gladstone wired: "We are sorely grieved at the death of one so eminently respected and so beloved. We must reserve a more particular expression of our feelings."

All the morning papers spoke kindly of Lord Iddesleigh and he is generally sorrowed for as an honorable and straightforward English gentleman.

[Lord Iddesleigh, better known as Sir Stafford Northcote, was born in London in 1818, and received his education at Eton and Oxford, graduating in 1839. He first came into public notice as private secretary to Mr. Gladstone in 1842, when the ex-premier was president of the board of trade, and, being called to the bar four years later, became legal secretary to the board. On the death of his grandfather in 1851 he succeeded to the family baronetcy and estates. He first entered parliament in 1855, as Conservative member for Dudley, and was subsequently Indian secretary. In 1871 he was a member of the joint high commission which concluded the treaty of Washington, and in 1874 was chancellor of the exchequer and Tory leader of the house after Disraeli became Lord Beaconsfield. Last year he was elevated to the peerage with the title of Lord Iddesleigh. He had written a number of works on different subjects.]

FOUR DEATHS IN THE FAMILY

Causes Chicago Authorities to Think There's a Borgia Around.

CHICAGO, Jan. 13.—Wednesday afternoon the funeral of a girl named Lucy Heidelmeyer was stopped by the police as the body was about to leave the house, and the authorities will make a post-mortem examination, as there are suspicions of foul play. The girl's step-father, Lawrence Krug, married her mother in September, 1885, and the couple went on a wedding trip to New York. Krug having previously insured his wife's life for $1,000 in the organization known as the Knights and Ladies of Honor. When on their wedding tour Mrs. Krug died, and Mr. Krug collected the insurance and was married again to a New York woman whose life was also insured. His second wife died in a few months, and six weeks after Mr. Krug was married to Mrs. Albertina Rohr, who was also insured in the Knights and Ladies of Honor. Six weeks after her marriage the last Mrs. Krug was suddenly taken sick and died. Lucy Heidelmeyer was insured, and as her death was sudden the police authorities stopped the funeral and put Mr. Krug under surveillance until a searching investigation can be made.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Jan. 13.—The general term handed down a decision Tuesday affirming the conviction and judgment Oyer and Terminer of Otsego county, in the case of the people against John M. Schuyler, who, on July 26, took his 3-year-old child, Amy, by the feet and swung her over his head, dashing her brains out against a chopping-block. Schuyler was convicted of murder in the first degree and was sentenced to be hanged on July 27, 1886. The case was argued on appeal last November, his lawyer seeking to show insanity.

United Press Annual Meeting.

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—The annual meeting of the United Press was held Wednesday at the St. James hotel. The report of the executive committee showed that the gross earnings in 1886 had been $950,000 in excess of those for 1885, and the treasurer reported a handsome surplus on hand. The following named officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, James W. Scott, of The Chicago Herald; vice president, John H. Farrell; treasurer, C. R. Baldwin; secretary, Walker P. Phillips. The board of directors for 1887 is the same as last year.

Brewers Succumb to the Boycott.

DETROIT, Mich., Jan. 12.—Three breweries Wednesday succumbed to the pressure of the boycott placed on them by the journeymen brewers last October, when the big lockout was declared. Since that time the town has been supplied by foreign beer mainly, and the home breweries' orders have steadily decreased. It is expected that most of the others will speedily yield to the pressure of the boycott. The journeymen have not suffered much, having had a liberal percentage on all sales of the foreign beer in consideration of their efforts to push the sale.

Free Trade

The reduction of internal revenue and the taking off of revenue stamps from Proprietary Medicines, no doubt has largely benefitted the consumers, as well as relieving the burden of home manufacturers. Especially is this the case with Green's August Flower and Boschee's German Syrup, as the reduction of thirty-six cents per dozen, has been added to increase the size of the bottles containing these remedies, thereby giving one-fifth more medicine in the 75 cent size. The August Flower for Dyspepsia and liver complaint, and the German Syrup for cough and lung troubles, have perhaps, the largest sale of any medicines in the world. The advantage of increased size of the bottles will be greatly appreciated by the sick and afflicted, in every town and village in civilized countries. Sample bottles 10 cents remain the same size.

The Farmers' Convention.

To the Editor.

MILTON JUNCTION, Jan. 6.—A. Broughton, as proxy for S. S. Northrop, took up the subject of "Clover and Its Effect on the Soil."

G. J. Kellogg, of Janesville, was next on the programme, followed by M. J. Plumb, of Milton. Both spoke on the subject of Horticulture.

Ezra Goodrich read a paper on "The Dairy," followed by a sharp discussion in regard to the "Butterene Law."

G. S. Parker read a paper written by O. D. Antisdel, of Rock, on "The Dairy and Neat Cattle," followed by Hon. Andrew Barlass on "The Horse."

On account of the lateness of the hour, the discussion was nearly all omitted, as well as Scott's paper on "The Early Maturity of Meat Cattle."

A resolution of thanks was unanimously accorded to Du Lac grange for their unbounded hospitality to all.

DASTARDLY DIABOLISM.

ANOTHER MISSOURI PACIFIC TRAIN WRECKED BY MISCREANTS,

Who Narrowly Escape Being Lynched by Enraged Citizens — The Crime Charged Against the Knights of Labor —The Engineer Crushed Under His Engine and Others Mortally Injured.

ATCHISON, Kan., Jan. 13.—About 12 o'clock Tuesday night the south-bound passenger train on the Missouri Pacific extension was thrown from the track about half a mile east of Dunbar, Neb., and completely wrecked. The wreck was undoubtedly the work of some miscreant who tampered with the track, as an examination showed that the fish-plates had been removed from the inside rail and a claw-bar was found four feet from the track. It is stated that Dewitt, the engineer, was not in favor of the Knights of Labor, because of his loyalty to the company, and that he had received several threatening letters. It is also stated that within the last four months four switches had been opened mysteriously before his train, but that in each case he had discovered it in time.

The wrecked train consisted of an engine, baggage and express car, smoker, passenger-coach, chair-car, and sleeper, and carried a large number of passengers. The scene of the wreck was on a curve, where the track runs around the base of a high, wooded hill on a six-foot embankment. At the foot of the embankment is a small stream, and along this stream the cars were scattered promiscuously, some on their sides and some bottom up. The engine turned over on its side, pinning the engineer, James Dewitt, to the ground, with the throttle bar through his right side. The fireman, Walter H. Gates, of Kansas City, was thrown out of the cab and seriously scalded. The express messenger, Frank I. Chenoweth, of Kansas City, was struck on the head by a heavy piece of baggage and had his skull fractured. The chair-car turned over and landed bottom up, with all the passengers in a heap amid broken lamps, seats, and personal baggage. Some one started to strike a match, but the rest begged him to desist, as it might set fire to the car.

A gentleman who was in the car when it went over describes the scene as one never to be forgotten. All the lamps went out, utter darkness prevailed, and everybody anticipated that a fire would break out and destroy them. Fortunately this did not occur, and soon a relief party burst in the doors with axes and took the passengers out, some very seriously hurt, but all more or less bruised. The sleeping-coach was literally wrecked, but, strange to say, only one person was dangerously injured. This was Mrs. Armstrong, wife of the superintendent of the Asylum for Incurables, at San Francisco. She was thrown out of her berth, and a very heavy man fell on top of her. It is feared she is injured internally. The passengers in the other cars are all more or less shaken up and injured.

What Railroad Men Say.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 13.—The Missouri Pacific officials here state that the wreck is the result of a third attempt upon the life of Dewitt, the engineer. They say some of the men engaged in the strike last spring cherished a grudge against Dewitt because he was an active supporter of the company during the great strike. They assert that the wreck near Wyandotte, for which Hamilton has just been tried, was the result of a plot against Dewitt's life, but his train was not the first to pass over the track as they expected. Subsequently, they say, another attempt was made, and the last one is the third. Several suspicious looking men, it is said, were seen loitering about the station at Dunbar Tuesday. Tracks were found leading from the scene of the wreck which may furnish a clew. The sheriff and several others are searching the neighborhood, and a reward will be offered for the wreckers. A number of California excursionists were among the party.

The Miscreants Arrested.

OMAHA, Neb., Jan 13.—D. W. Hoffman and James Bell have been arrested and lodged in jail at Nebraska City on the charge of wrecking the Missouri Pacific passenger train Tuesday night at Dunbar, causing the death of Engineer Dewitt and fatally injuring Express Messenger Chenoweth. The prisoners were arrested at Dunbar and taken to Nebraska City to avoid lynching by the enraged citizens. All the evidence before the coroner's jury shows pretty conclusively that the right man have been arrested.

Jay Gould on Various Subjects.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 13.—Jay Gould told a reporter before he left the city Wednesday on a tour of his railways, that arrangements are making to abolish the bridge arbitrary here and operate the structure so that its revenues shall simply cover the fixed charges. He said a union station would be built here—he expected during the coming year—to cost $1,000,000. There would be a number of extensions and feeders built to the Missouri Pacific this year, probably amounting to as many miles as were built in 1886. Regarding the inter-state commerce bill he said: "I am in favor of it, provided it is revised and made clear, which the original bill is not. * * * When the bill once becomes a law and the railroads of the country are compelled to work under its regulations they must act intelligently. The long-and-short-haul clause, as traffic men interpret it, amounts to a practical exclusion of the products of the far west from the markets of the east." The clause was ambiguous, as was shown by the amount of explanation it was developing in the senate. When the west felt its effect there would be a clamor for its repeal. Mr. Gould favored an intelligent commission to pass upon questions arising.

Over a Dozen Men Ablaze.

LANCASTER, Pa., Jan. 13.—While the Columbia and Middletown wrecking crews were engaged in clearing away the wreck at Shock station Tuesday afternoon fire communicated to a coal oil tank near at hand and it exploded, scattering the oil among the railroaders and setting fire to their clothing. Michael Roland, Dennis Cobo, Thomas Stinton and Edward Baight, of Columbia, were seriously burned, as were nearly a dozen of the Middletown crew. No fatal results thus far are reported. The unfortunate men subdued the flames by rolling in the snow.

Failure of a Chicago Firm.

CHICAGO, Jan. 13.—The Chicago Drug and Chemical company confessed judgment Wednesday to notes aggregating $78,750. One confession is for $73,000, to George Ehret, a New York brewer. Another is to the Chicago National bank for $5,250. The almost sole stockholder is William Hones, he owning all except one share.

Price of Nails Advanced.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 13.—The Western Nail association at its meeting Wednesday, in this city, ordered an advance of 20 cents in the card rate. This places the selling price at $2.60, at which rate the nailers receive a material advance in wages.

Wonderful Cures.

W. D. Hoyt & Co., Wholesale and Retail Druggists of Rome, Ga., say: We have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery, Electric Bitters and Bucklen's Arnica Salve for two years. Have never handled remedies that sell as well, or give such universal satisfaction. There have been some wonderful cures effected by these medicines in this city. Several cases of pronounced Consumption have been entirely cured by use of a few bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery, taken in connection with Electric Bitters. We guarantee them always. Sold by Frank Sherer & Co.

—THE GAZETTE IS ONE OF THE LARGEST AND BEST DAILIES PUBLISHED IN THE STATE; THE SUBSCRIPTION PRICE IS ONLY 12 CENTS A WEEK DELIVERED TO ANY PART OF THE CITY.

Shopiere.

—L. F. Hammond and family, of Ashton, D. T., are spending a few days with S. K. Sweet's family. Mr. Hammond is one of the prominent men of Spink county and has large property interests there.

—Dr. Collver and wife worshipped at the Congregational church last Sabbath.

—D. W. Lewis, proprietor of the Porter station creamery, is running a winter route for milk this winter and is gathering about 1,500 lbs. per day for which he is paying $1.00 per hundred. He intends to run this creamery the whole season if he can induce the farmers to have winter cows.

—Rev. L. F. Cole, representing the order of Good Templars, gave a very interesting address last Sunday evening at the Congregational church. There has never been a temperance address delivered in this village which was listened to with as much interest as the one given by this gentleman. Mr. Cole is the author of "Save the Boy" and other popular music and is a fine singer. Some of these pieces were sung by him to the delight of the audience.

—The union prayer meetings held the past week have been well attended, also the union services last Sabbath.

—The Band concert last evening was a complete success in all respects. The church was well filled and those present seemed to appreciate the maiden effort of the boys. The receipts of the evening were a little over $50. Many of the pieces were called for the second time but it was impossible to bring them out in an encore. We suppose the boys felt bashful as this was their first appearance in public.

—B. H. Smith left for Whitewater to-day and we understand will engage in business with our former townsman, D. VanValen, of the Whitewater business agency. We are sorry to make this announcement as we do not like to lose such men from our village. Mr. Smith has been a resident among us most of the time since this village came into existence and has always been a promoter of the public good. It is largely due to his 15 years work on the school board that we have one of the finest public schools in the county. Mr. Smith has a fine farm on the banks of the Turtle which we hope will yet bring him back to us a resident. We understand the family will not leave their home at present.

—The C. & N. W. Ry. have put in a telegraph office here, and our citizens are very much pleased, as the need of telephone or telegraph facilities here has been felt very much. Station Agent Clark now feels happy, as he is no longer shut out from the world at large.

—Those interested in the celebrated town line road, are moving to bring the matter before the county board for action.

For the relief and cure of the inflammation and congestion called "a cold in head" there is more potency in Ely's Cream Balm than in anything else it is possible to prescribe. This preparation has for years past been making a brilliant success as a remedy for cold in the head, catarrh and hay fever. Used in the initial stages of these complaints Cream Balm prevents any serious development of the symptoms, while almost numberless cases are on record of radical cures of chronic catarrh and hay fever after all other modes of treatment have proved of no avail.

Emerald Grove.

—Members of the Northwestern Mutual Relief Association to meet at store Saturday evening to elect delegates to annual meeting to be held at Madison.

—A very pleasant social event occurred on Thursday before last, in the gathering by invitation of some twenty five or thirty persons, mostly elderly people, of Emerald Grove and vicinity, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Clark, of Fairfield. Dinner was served at two o'clock and a most enjoyable time was spent in social intercourse. Before the company broke up Mr. and Mrs. R. Cheney sang one or two of their sweet songs and remarks were made by others expressive of their appreciation of the kindly attentions of host and hostess'

Catarrh to Consumption
Catarrh in its destructive force stands next to and undoubtedly leads on to consumption. It is therefore singular that those afflicted with this fearful disease should not make it the object of their lives to rid themselves of it. Deceptive remedies concocted by ignorant pretenders to medical knowledge have weakened the confidence of the great majority of all sufferers in advertized remedies. They become resigned to a life of misery, rather than torture themselves with doubtful palliatives.
But this will never do. Catarrh must be met at every stage and combated with all our might In many cases the disease has assumed dangerous symptoms. The bones and cartilage of the nose, the organs of hearing, of seeing and of tasting so affected as to be useless, the uvula so elongated, the throat so inflamed and irritated as to produce a constant and distressing cough.
Sanford's Radical Cure meets every phase of Catarrh, from a simple head cold to the most loathsome and destructive stages. It is local and constitutional. Instant in relieving, permanent in curing, safe, economical and never-failing.
Each package contains one bottle of the Radical cure, one box of Catarrhal Solvent, and an Improved Inhaler, with treatise; price, $1.

MISCELLANEOUS.

RULED BY PREJUDICE.
Few persons realize how thoroughly they are controlled by prejudice even to their own disadvantage. For many years the treatment of rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica and headache has been by some outward application, and, therefore, without stopping to think that the origin of these troubles must, from necessity, be internal, the weary sufferer continues to rub, rub and find no relief. Athlophoros is taken internally, and as a proof that this is the correct principle, it cures surely and quickly. The statement of those who have been cured ought to convince the incredulous.
Jewell, Mich.
We are satisfied that Athlophoros is giving the best satisfaction of any rheumatic remedy we are selling.
HUNT & HUNTER.
George H. Baldwin, dealer in coal and wood, Kenosha, Wis., says: I was afflicted with rheumatism for several years, and at times suffered quite severely. I used two bottles of Athlophoros and soon had relief."
Lambert Smith, Jr., Sheboygan, Wis., says: "I have had rheumatism for at least fifteen years. I did not suffer with it steadily, but was subject to attacks most any time, and always sure to be laid up with it during the fall and spring of each year. The disease was not confined to any one part of my body; it would appear first in one place then in another, but more frequently in my feet and ankles, which would swell out of all proportion. It is just about a year since I used a bottle of Athlophoros. Although I have passed through the fall and spring I have not had any rheumatism whatever since I used that one bottle of medicine."
Every druggist should keep Athlophoros and Athlophoros Pills, but where they cannot be bought of the druggist the Athlophoros Co., 112 Wall St., New York, will send either (carriage paid) on receipt of regular price, which is $1.00 per bottle for Athlophoros and 50c. for Pills.
For liver and kidney diseases, dyspepsia, indigestion, weakness, nervous debility, diseases of women, constipation, headache, impure blood, &c., Athlophoros Pills are unequaled.

—The handsome new interior scenery will be used for the first time at Myers new opera house to-night in "Woman Against Woman."

—Janesville Commandery No. 2, Knights Templar, will assemble in regular semi-monthly conclave this evening at Masonic hall. Installation of officers, —The ice house of the People's Ice company will probably be entirely filled within a few days. It is said that the amount stored will be about three thousand tons.

—Tickets for the children's concert to-morrow night are selling rapidly at Prentice & Evenson's. The programme in another column indicates that the concert will be one of the most enjoyable ever given in Janesville.

—Because one of our prominent citizens bought a package of rat poison this morning, the story was passed around that he had committed suicide. He was around most of the day trying to find out where the report started.

—Captain W. T. Vankirk, this morning, received a large number of volumes of "Pub. Doc." from Hon. John C. Spooner for the Business Men's Association. The volumes cover a variety of subjects, including Major Powell's reports of his geological surveys in the far west.

—Yesterday and the day before, Messrs. Galbraith Bro's sold five of their choice stock of imported stallions. Three of them go to Iowa and two to Illinois. "Lancashire Tom," "Royal Correwall," "Barlhow Bay," "Lord Orton," and "Baron Chief," are the names given to the splendid animals.

—There appeared in the municipal court this morning a German by the name of Fred Wolfrann. Complaint had been made against him by Dorothea Zearath, for taking undue advantage of her trustful innocence, but after a short conference the matter was settled by a visit to Justice Prichard's matrimonial bureau.

—The Court Street church people are now engaged in completing a programme for "The Old Fashioned School" to be given at one of the opera houses in the near future. The entertainment will serve as a happy reminder of "Ye days of yore" when the district school with all the fascinating surroundings so impressed the mind that its memory still lingers, a bright spot in the early history of every old resident. The programme will be published in a few days.

—This morning in Justice Prichard's court, the case of Richardson against Janesville Street Railway Co., garnishee of William Humphrey, was decided in favor of the plaintiff. William Humphrey owed for shoes at Richardson's shoe store, and when he brought in a load of hay to the street car company's barn, the company was garnisheed. Humphrey claims that the hay can not be taken for the payment of his debts, because it belonged to his brother, and intends to have the case reopened.

—The "biscuit baker" is in town again. This time he represents Horsford's Baking Powder and his name is one that many Janesville people will recognize. He is Mr. Frank Rogers who formerly lived here but who has until recently been running a grocery at Beloit. He has been out on the road three months and the quality of his cooking shows that he has been successful. Just now he is at F. S. Winslow's and expects to stay there for three days. After that he will visit W. T. Vankirk, Vankirk Bros., F. W. Chrisman, S. Holdredge, Ball & Bates, J. H. Myers, and John Jones.

—The remains of the late Wm. Butts arrived at Milton yesterday from Iowa, and the funeral was held at the Congregational church, Milton, at eleven o'clock this morning under the auspices of the Odd Fellows, deceased being a member of Wisconsin Lodge No. 14, of this city. A large number of the order in this city went to Milton this morning to attend the funeral. The pall bearers were E. H. Baldwin, I. C. Brownell, James A. Fathers, of Wisconsin Lodge No. 14, this city; A. H. Taylor, of Milton Lodge No. 65, Milton Junction; M. J. Plumb and W. H. Davidson, of Du Lac Lodge No. 122, Milton. The remains were buried at Milton.

—Nicholas Kirch, who died here yesterday, was well known in many parts of the state through his connection with one of the supreme court cases. He owned a grist mill on Black Earth Creek and a Milwaukee man owned one about three miles above him. This other person ran his mill in such a way that the head of water left for Kirch was decidedly insufficient. Suit was brought in the court at Madison and a perpetual injunction against this improper use of the water power was granted. A short time before Kirch's death the case had come up in the supreme court and a new trial was ordered.

—August Krenger, a German farmer, was released from jail yesterday morning after serving seven days for drunkenness. To celebrate his release he dallied with "John Barley-corn;" and John got the best of it. This was the case when Krenger stood waiting for the Apollo hall stairway to swing around past him again. It finally came within reach and he stepped in to rest himself. Just then the Choral ended. Krenger made a disturbance as the young people came out, and finally tried to pick a fight, but Marshal Hogan came along and carried him down for another visit with Sheriff Ward.

—For some time past there has been pending in the municipal court the case of the People vs. Palmer & Stevens. It was alleged by an agent of the Wisconsin Board of Pharmacy that the law forbidding the selling of poisons by anyone but registered pharmacists had been violated and after several postponements the case came up for trial yesterday. Yesterday afternoon the jury went out but returned unable to agree. Judge Patten gave them additional instructions and late in the afternoon they returned a verdict of not guilty. M. G. Jeffris was attorney for the people and William Smith for the defense. It is understood that an appeal to the circuit court will be taken.

—Another "cash railway" has been put up in the city. Customers of F. S. Winslow's new house have their change brought by automatic messages. Wires run from the cashier's desk to all parts of the store, and suspended from each of these is a cup through the cover of which the wire passes. At each end of the line is a strong spring. The money and tickets are put into a cup and driven by one of these springs, where the cashier sits. Change is returned in the same way, and customers can be waited on much more easily than when there were constant interruptions caused by walking back and forth from the cashier's desk. There are now three of these railways in Janesville stores, Mr. Winslow's and that in the New York Store being somewhat similar, while that in the Chicago Store is on a wholly different plan.

IN SOCIAL CIRCLES.

The Party of Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Rowe Proves a Very Enjoyable Affair.

From every window of the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Rowe last evening, came a blaze of light. The stained glass gleamed and sparkled, throwing many colored beams out over the snow, and making a picture of beauty. Inside, was gathered one of the pleasantest companies that have been seen for years past. Nearly two hundred of the best known society people in the city were grouped in the luxurious parlors of the hostess, chatting, and enjoying the strains of music from Anderson's orchestra.

A short time before eight o'clock the company were waited upon with refreshments of a most delectable nature. Included in the menu were cold turkey, chicken salad, lobster salad, dainty trifles in cake, chocolate cream, ice cream and many other delicacies; and served so tastefully as to make them doubly enjoyable.

The remainder of the evening was given up to the dance or other social diversions. Three of the spacious rooms were canvased, and in these the devotees to Terpsichore reigned supreme. Those that were not numbered among these either gathered in the parlor and the main hall or sat around the card tables which were in apartments on the second floor. Time passed swiftly and it was twelve o'clock before the company broke up.

The costumes were elegant. Diamonds shone from many a fair throat and the effect produced by play of light upon the ever changing groups was brilliant indeed. The affair was a success in every way and added another to the list of notable social events in Janesville society.

Selling right from the cost mark. No percentage added for expenses.

NEW YORK SAVING STORE.

The Weather.

At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer indicated 23 degree above zero. Partly cloudy with southeast wind. At one o'clock p. m., the register was 38 degrees above zero. Cloudy with east wind. For the corresponding hours one year ago the register was 12 and 29 degrees above zero.

Our entire stock must be cleared out within 60 days. Never such a chance for bargains. N. Y. SAVING STORE.

In the matter of lighthouse illumination experiments appear to show that, while the electric arc light is more absorbed in proportion than gas or oil light, as it passes through fog, still its greater intensity enables it to penetrate much further than those. The Berlin core carbons, manufactured by Siemens, have been found to operate best, the core being of graphite. On the whole, investigation thus far renders it apparent that, for ordinary purposes of lighthouse illumination, mineral oil possesses superior advantages, and that for salient or prominently projecting headlands and very powerful lights electricity is superior.—New York Sun.

Pedestrianism in Prison.

L. A. White, the man who was arrested more than a year ago on a charge of manufacturing counterfeit Brazilian money, is developing power as a pedestrian scarcely less wonderful than he showed when his energies were directed to turning out neat counterfeit notes. He is in jail at St. Charles awaiting trial; and a few days ago he measured the "walk" into which the cells open, and began walking back and forth and counting the distance he covered. The first day he walked sixteen miles. Each succeeding day he has increased the distance, and he is now walking more than thirty miles a day.—St. Louis Republican.

The Supervisors.

The Rock county board of supervisors convened in an adjourned meeting at two o'clock this afternoon in the office of the county clerk at the court house. Mr. Chairman Wm. Gardner, of Bradford, occupying the chair.

The only change in the membership of the board being that from the town of Janesville, Mr. George R. Barker taking the place of Silas Ward, elected sheriff since the last meeting; J. B. Inman, in place of Mr. Thon, of Plymouth, and Mat. Broderick, in place of Mr. Harper, of Magnolia.

The lateness of the hour of convening the board this afternoon prevents us giving the proceedings. It is expected that much important business will be considered at this meeting.

Accidents will occur not only in the best regulated families, but everywhere and at all times. Therefore keep Salvation Oil convenient.

PRINCETON, N. J., Jan. 21, 1886.

I have found it imperative to have sure and simple remedies on hand in case of cuts, bruises, strains, sprains, colds, rheumatism, etc. Shortly after entering upon my profession, I discovered such a remedy as ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS, I tried Benson's Capcine and other plasters, but found them too harsh and irritating. ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS give almost instantaneous relief, and their strengthening power is remarkable. In cases of weak back put two plasters on the small of the back, and in a short time you will be capable of quite severe exercise. In "spirit" and "distance" races and jumping the muscles or tendons in the legs or feet sometimes weaken. This can invariably be relieved by cutting the plaster in narrow strips, so as to give free motion, and applying on muscles affected.

"WOMAN AGAINST WOMAN."

Of the play that will be represented here to-night the Milwaukee Sentinel says:

If the success of a play is to be guaged by the enthusiasm manifested by an audience, then "Woman against Woman" made a distinct hit at the opera house last night. The story, simple as it is in detail, is of absorbing interest, growing in power as the plot naturally and easily unfolds, until the conclusion of the fourth act, which closes with a scene of intense dramatic strength. The audience last night was very enthusiastic, bringing Miss Ellsler before the curtain twice, a fitting recognition of her efforts to please, which, by the way, are always conscientious. There are few actresses in this country who can invest roles of this character with the womanliness, the tenderness and the purity so necessary to a proper interpretation.

UNCLE TOM'S CABIN.

On Saturday afternoon and night Jan. 15th, Abbey's Uncle Tom's Cabin Co, will appear at the opera house. This company is composed of 26 artists:

The fact that Uncle Tom's Cabin still has a strong hold upon the public was demonstrated last evening, as the opera house was filled from pit to dome by a large audience, eager to witness the play as presented by Abbey's company. To say that the audience was satisfied would be but re-echoing a remark expressed very many times last evening. The singing of the quartette was a very enjoyable feature, as was the music of the orchestra. Miss Partington as Topsy was excellent. Baby Grace as Eva was the favorite, and sung her way into the hearts of the audience. Mr. Wallace as Uncle Tom, James Marshall as Marks, and C. A. True as Gumption Cute, were very good. The balance of the cast was well taken by members of the company. —Owego Daily, Nov. 23.

A MEDICO-LEGAL QUESTION.

A Point Which Would Seem of Prime Importance in Criminal Jurisprudence.

In a recent trial in Chicago it was desired to establish the probable period during which certain human bones offered in evidence had been buried. Authorities were searched, and medical, chemical and other experts appealed to with the result of determining an absolute dearth of knowledge upon a point which would seem of prime importance in criminal jurisprudence. Upon the discovery of a dead body or of human remains under circumstances pointing to violence, one of the most important factors in the problem of the discovery of the murderer must obviously be the probable date of death. But when this is beyond the period necessary for the destruction of the soft parts of the body—usually a few months at most—the text books of law and medicine and the experience and observations of the anatomical expert are alike silent and fruitless.

A recent communication to the French Academy of Medicine indicates a method of determination of this fact of date which the medico-legal student will need to master if he would acquit himself creditably in the future. This consists in studying the generations of the minute organisms (acarina) which destroy the body after death. M. Brouardel presented to the academy the body of a young girl which he was able to prove had lain in a cellar for a year, by tracing the order of succession and life duration of different species of these microphytes. One species consumes the fatty acids of the body; another absorbs certain fluids; still others feed only upon the skin, or the muscular structure, or the nerve tissue, etc.; and each species dies when its work is ended, its period of life varying from six to eight weeks, according to the temperature and other conditions. By this means M. Meguin, one of M. Brouardel's collaborators, was able to accurately establish the date of burial in a case of murder, in which the remains of the victim were discovered in a garden.

This work has not, as yet, been taken up in this country, nor is it stated to what remoteness of burial it will apply. But it is not likely that the French will be allowed to monopolize the field of research thus opened up to the medico-legal expert.—Chicago News.

At the Arthur Funeral.

James G. Blaine and R. B. Hayes met at the Arthur funeral. Mr. Hayes expressed in sorrowful tones an apprehension of approaching death, to which Mr. Blaine answered: "You have twenty-five years of life yet before you, and I trust that you will enjoy them." Mr. Hayes replied with much feeling: "I don't expect it, Mr. Blaine; that is too much to expect." Mr. Blaine replied: "I don't think so. Sixty-four and twenty-five are eighty-nine. That is, I think, the exact age at which John Adams died, and he had only just retired from the presidency at your age. I hope you may fill out those years."

Importation of Pheasants.

The steamship Fulda, which arrived at New York recently, had on board the largest shipment of live English pheasants ever brought to this country. They are for propagating purposes. There are 1,500 of them, and they were brought over in large crates divided into partitions, each of which accommodated four birds. One thousand of them go to Pierre Lorillard, at Tuxedo park. The rest will go to various game preserves. A few will go to Senator McPherson. The birds, although called the English pheasant, come from Bohemia.—Chicago Herald.

The Noble Three Hundred.

A sensation was caused at Painted Woods, Dak., sixteen miles north of Bismarck, the other evening by the appearance of a herd of buffaloes stampeding before the storm. This is the first herd of buffaloes seen in that country for over two years, and they must have been driven over 100 miles by the storm. They were going in a southwesterly direction, and crossed the Missouri river about ten miles north of Bismarck. It is estimated that the herd numbered over 300, and many of the animals were exhausted.—Chicago Herald.

Rats and 'Possum.

William Young, a farmer, of Morris, Mo., hearing a tremendous squealing and snarling under his corn crib, investigated and found that a swarm of rats had attacked a 'possum, and were actually eating it alive. They had nearly killed it when the farmer discovered them, drove them away, and himself killed the mutilated animal.

Some miscreants attempted to burn the Price county court house at Phillips Tuesday night by setting fire to some prepared kindling and leaving it near the chimney in the attic, but the blaze was extinguished before much damage was done. No motive for the attempt can be conceived.

Before Court commissioner Cameron, at La Crosse Wednesday, two saloon keepers, John Fox and John Wacker, were held for trial at the circuit court for keeping open on Sunday. This is the first gleam of success had in all the prosecutions running through a period of two months. The Law and Order league of LaCrosse still keep at it, however, and other arrests are to be made.

The thirty-eighth annual meeting of the Walworth county agricultural society was held at Elkhorn Wednesday. The society is in a prosperous condition, the following being the receipts and disbursements for 1886: Total receipts, $9,454.74; disbursements for premiums, $4,226.50; other disbursements, $3,103.68; balance on hand $655.75. Among the items of expense for 1886 was the amount paid for permanent improvements, $1,370.11. The officers elected for the ensuing year were: President, S. R. Edgerton; vice president, D. S. Allen; secretary, Levi E. Allen; treasurer, L. G. Latham. With a greatly increased premium list for 1887, the society expects not to be outdone by any in the northwest.

The escape of a notorious criminal from the Eau Claire county jail has just leaked out. The other night the Y. M. C. A. held services in the jail to comfort the prisoners, who were let out into the large cage for the occasion. When the services were over, James Sullivan, a prisoner of many aliases and many offenses turned up his coat collar, rolled up the whites of his eyes, passed out unnoticed among the Y. M. C. A. people, and made good his escape. He was in jail for an audacious theft from a passenger coach at the Eau Claire depot, of property belonging to a Chicago drummer.

Oshkosh Northwestern; Rev. J. G. Nuetzel, of Trinity Lutheran church, says in regard to members of his church belonging to the Knights of Labor that he will do all in his power to persuade them to leave the order, but if repeated attempts of persuasion and argument are of no avail he will expell all from the church who refuse to renounce the Knights. He desires that the proceedings be conducted quietly and according to the dictates of reason. Mr. Nuetzel is a stove moulder by trade. When he first came to this country he made sixty-five cents a day, but before leaving the trade he commanded two dollars a day wages. He believes the country is tending too much toward socialism and anarchism and thinks if the church and all other powers unite the tide may be stemmed. Otherwise an iron rule such as some of the common people are now talking of will be needed.

Everyone knows that cocoa is an excellent tonic. Taken in the morning at breakfast it has no equal for nutrition and strengthening qualities; but it can be taken with advantage at any time. It is especially recommended for nursing mothers, to whom its benefits are invaluable. Unfortunately cocoa is sometimes mixed with starch, arrowroot or sugar, and thus loses a great part of its special properties; hence great care should be taken to procure the best in the market. Baker's Breakfast Cocoa and Chocolate preparations have long been the standard of excellence, and are guaranteed absolutely pure.
